

Hathaway Development

Multi Use Master Planning

Challenge: Extensive analysis and master planning blend the development with the fragile, existing ecosystems within the 250-acre site.

- sensitive ecosystems and wetlands
- commercial/retail and residential development integrating recreational use
- preserve natural features
- develop pedestrian circulation
- great neighborhood character with diverse housing mix
- stormwater management planning
- Greenville, MI