

City of Pottersville Water System

Challenge: Update and expand an old water system to meet the demands of a new and expanding population.

- distribution system design, analysis, and construction management
- water system hydraulic study
- 300,000 gallon elevated water storage
- iron removal system
- assist with selection of new well location
- ongoing City Municipal Engineering services
- Pottersville, MI