

City of Battle Creek Engineer Lake

Challenge: Construct a lake which would provide optimal training facilities in accordance with stringent military design specifications.

- environmental and cost evaluations of construction alternatives
- Department of Natural Resources permit acquisition
- excavation of 220,000 cubic yards to create 15-acre lake
- construction of augmentation well, lake level control structure, shoreline erosion controls, access facilities, roadways, and staging areas
- Calhoun County, MI