

Grand Rapids Public Schools Sibley Elementary

Challenge: Originally slated as an addition/renovation, a new facility proved to provide more cost-effective educational delivery on this tight urban site, already occupied by two school buildings.

- innovative grade-level clusters with shared multi-purpose and support spaces
- paired classrooms with student breakout rooms between
- new 3-story, 66,800 square-foot elementary school, pre-K-5
- replacement school for two local elementary schools
- program includes gym, administrative area, media center, 27 classrooms, and cafeteria/commons
- $10M
- Grand Rapids, MI